

Breathe easy folks. This prowling tiger can be found at the Sheboygan County Fair this year but he's strictly the paper mache and paste variety. Young Dick Endsley of Plymouth casts a wary eye at the creation of some Howards Grove school children. The tiger is part of an extensive educational display involving practically all school districts of the county. The fair opens today and will run through Monday. Acres of exhibits and features crowd the fairgrounds. - (Review Staff Photo)
